Accommodations in Niagara-on-the-Lake

Our Featured Host Hotels are located in Queenston & St.Davids which provide an easy drive to the race start finish. The Sweetwater Group supports the Niagara Ultra charity (the Bruce Trail) and has 2 locations in Queenston (a stone's throw from the race course).

The Sweetwater Group is a Niagara-on-the-Lake based hospitality company driven by authentic experiences and positive engagement with local communities. The Sweetwater Group holds several historic properties in the immediate reach of world-renowned wineries, excellent restaurants and live theatre, the majestic Niagara Falls, and all the natural beauty of Canada's unique fruit belt. All which offer a wide range of guest experiences.

The Woodbourne Inn is a quiet and peaceful retreat in the surroundings of a stately Victorian-era house. With a morning coffee tray and full breakfast from our in-house chef, it is a complete B&B offering for discerning adult couples or individuals who want to pamper themselves with a more luxurious hospitality experience.

The South Landing Inn offers a thoughtful hybrid of the old world and contemporary artful culture with historic architecture and contemporary interior design. Reservations include use of the pantry and a continental breakfast buffet made fresh daily by our in-house chef.

The Kent Motel is for the resourceful traveller who needs a clean, fun, simple, and safe place to sleep. Its services provide a 'base of operations' from which to explore the region for work or play.

Other Accommodations:

Some Niagara-on-the-Lake accommodations can be quite expensive. Here is a link to provide help in choosing accommodations. The race start finish is close to the intersection of Mary and King Streets.

http://www.niagaraonthelake.com/accommodations

A reasonably priced alternative (about 20 minutes from the race start/finish) is the Niagara College Residence and Conference Centre.

Niagara on the Lake Hotels Alternative — RCC NOTL (stayrcc.com)